Selection Criteria and Process

Applicants should possess the passion and dedication for the arts/sports with good self-discipline. We are looking for students who:

- Are proficient in playing instruments/singing/dancing/acting/sports and are motivated to continually upgrade their performance/sporting skills;
- Are responsible individuals and are motivated and disciplined to achieve excellence;
- Possess a positive attitude; and
- Are good team-players who will contribute actively to the Performing Arts/Sports CCAs in the school.

Meeting all criteria does not guarantee the student will be shortlisted/given an offer.

Only short-listed applicants will be contacted by the school for an audition/trial and interview. Short-listed applicants will go through an audition/trial, Physical Ability Test/Sports Technical Skills Test and/or an interview to assess her suitability.

The details of DSA Selection Criteria and Process will be made available on the school website by 7 May 2024. Once an applicant is shortlisted, she will be given more information on the requirements of the audition/trial and details of the skills test by the school.
